Resumen: Esta es la segunda parte de la relación de los graduados en Artes y Filosofía en la Universidad Luliana y Literaria de Mallorca, en este caso, desde 1750 hasta 1831, cuando fue clausurada por Fernando VII. Esta lista es un caudal de datos que resulta fundamental para la elaboración de prosopografías de las élites de los siglos XVIII y XIX, y una útil herramienta para el estudio de la historia de las Universidades.

Palabras clave: Artes, Filosofía, Mallorca, Graduados, Universidad

Abstract: This is the second part of the complete list of the graduates in Arts and Philosophy in the Lullian University of Majorca, from 1750 to 1831, when the University was closed by Ferdinand VII. This list is a data flow that becomes quite important for the elaboration of prosopographies of elites of 18th and 19th centuries, and a useful tool for the study of the history of the Universities.

Key words: Arts, Philosophy, Majorca, Graduates, University

Los graduados en Artes y Filosofía en la Universidad Luliana y Literaria de Mallorca II: (1750-1831)

Se continúa aquí con la relación de graduados en Artes y Filosofía de la Universidad Luliana y Literaria de Mallorca, en este caso, desde 1750 hasta 1831. Los graduados son clasificados por cursos, tomando como inicio de cada uno el primero de octubre, aunque el inicio de las clases no fuera hasta el día de san Lucas.

Frente a los graduados hasta 1750, con posterioridad a este año debe indicarse que las colaciones fueron en aumento y que no sólo fueron de insulares, sino también de peninsulares, sobre todo de catalanes. Deben resaltarse no sólo los profesores, eclesiásticos y profesionales liberales que se movieron en un radio de acción más limitado, sino también de algunas figuras destacadas de la cultura balear, como el escritor Joan Ramis i Ramis.

En cuanto a la evolución de los graduados, debe destacarse, más allá de lo indicado en la primera parte de este trabajo, el ritmo creciente durante el último tercio del siglo XVIII y el colapso posterior al Trienio Liberal. Desde 1750 a 1770, salvo un flujo constante de menorquines e ibicencos, no se encuentran apenas estudiantes peninsulares. A partir de entonces, algunos estudiantes aragoneses, catalanes y valencianos recibieron los grados en Mallorca. La misma proporción se mantuvo estable hasta las reformas de Carlos III, que clausuraron la Universidad de Gandía y, alteraron notablemente los planes de estudio. Como se indicó en la primera parte, la clausura de Gandía y la llegada de muchos estudiantes que no querían pasar por los rigores de Cervera, hizo que durante el último tercio de la centuria hubiera un aumento significativo, que duró hasta comienzos del XIX, y que fue decayendo hasta 1823.

La Universidad, convertida en seminario conciliar por Fernando VII, continuó colacionando ciertos grados durante la década de 1830 a aquellos alumnos que habían comenzado sus estudios con anterioridad a la clausura de la institución. Pere Fullana estudia con detalle la evolución de la misma y aporta los nombres de los graduados<sup>1</sup>. La experiencia de la Universidad Balear<sup>2</sup> tampoco aportó graduados en Artes, puesto que el sistema de estudios había cambiado y la singladura de la institución fue demasiado breve para hablar de grados análogos a los que aquí se estudian.

En cuanto a la interpretación de las tablas, como se dijo ya en la primera parte, en las firmas de los grados hay a menudo dos referencias, separadas por una barra. La primera corresponde a fecha del examen, que aparece en la columna vecina, y la segunda a la fecha en que fue conferido. En el caso de los grados en bachiller, éste era conferido inmediatamente después de la lectura de las conclusiones previas al mismo, de modo que, al suceder ambos hechos en un mismo día, quedan recogidos en una firma. En el caso que aparezcan dos firmas para un grado de bachiller, debe entenderse que el grado se confirió en una fecha distinta a la lectura de las conclusiones, o bien que los dos hechos, aunque tuvieron lugar el mismo día, aparecen recogidos en

Cabe indicar que se ha intentado presentar la documentación en su mínima expresión por cuestión de espacio. Así pues, simplemente se indica el número del libro, seguido de los folios en los que se encuentra la referencia concreta. En el caso de las referencias a legajos, se indica el número del legajo con la abreviatura “leg.”, seguido del número del legajo y, si se tercia, el número de documento en que puede encontrarse. Los libros y legajos proceden todos de la sección Universitat del Archivo Histórico de la Universitat de les Illes Balears (AHUIB).
